

Delivery Policy

Introduction

In this policy we set out details of the delivery methods, periods and charges that apply to orders for our products made through our website.

Geographical limitations

We will usually be able to deliver to the following countries and territories: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

We may from time to time agree to deliver products to other countries and territories.

Delivery methods and periods

The methods that we use to deliver our products, and the time periods within which delivery is usually completed, are as follows:

- a) if your delivery address is on the United Kingdom mainland, you will be able to select Royal Mail, and the typical period for delivery of products by this method is within 3 working days.

If you place your order by 4pm GMT/BST on a working day, these time periods run from the close of business on that day; if you place your order after 4pm GMT/BST on a working day, or on a non-working day, these time periods run from the close of business on the next following working day.

The delivery periods set out in this Section are indicative only, and whilst we will make every effort to ensure that you receive your delivery in good time, we do not guarantee delivery before the end of the stated period.

We may conduct fraud screening checks before dispatching the product, and these checks may delay your delivery. If the delivery is likely to be delayed as a result of fraud screening checks, we will notify you.

Delivery charges

Delivery charges will be calculated by our website and automatically applied to your order during the checkout process, or alternatively quoted by us.

Applicable delivery charges will depend upon the delivery method you select, the location of the delivery address, and the size and weight of the products in your order.

Collection

If your products remain undelivered despite our delivery service provider making an attempt to deliver them, the delivery service provider will leave a card at your address, with instructions on how you may collect your products, including a time limit for collection.

Delivery problems

If you experience any problems with a delivery, please contact us using the contact details that we publish on our website or otherwise notify to you.

If our delivery service provider is unable to deliver your products, and such failure is your fault, and you do not collect your products from our delivery service provider within the relevant time limit, we may agree to arrange for re-delivery of the products; however, we reserve the right to charge you for the actual costs of re-delivery.

An indicative list of the situations where a failure to deliver will be your fault is set out below:

- a) you provided the wrong address for delivery;
- b) there is a mistake in the address for delivery that was provided;
- c) the address for delivery is not reasonably accessible;
- d) the address for delivery cannot safely be accessed;
- e) if in-person receipt is not required, there is no easy and secure means of leaving the products at the address for delivery and there is no person available to accept delivery.
